Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

Reference is made to the following documents:

D1: WO 00 45394 A

D2: BERNARD H. ET AL.: 'AIDA-MOX 1993-1996. Evaluation of Processes for the Fabrication of MOX-Fuel from Weapons-grade Plutonium ' 31 December 1997 (1997-12-31) , ATOMIC ENERGY SOCIETY OF JAPAN, TOKYO (JAPAN) , JAPAN XP008014724

The present application is claiming a process for fabricating mixed oxide nuclear fuel from weapon grade plutonium.

Weapon grade plutonium is often alloyed with gallium which is causing problems in the fabrication of nuclear fuels.

In this application the gallium is removed in a dry process that can be performed together and/or in the same apparatus as the scrap recycling process.

The document D1 is about the fabrication of mixed oxide fuel. The removal of gallium from the plutonium oxide is not considered.

The document D2 is about the fabrication of mixed oxide fuel. The removal of gallium from the plutonium oxide is considered but not in the same process.

The subject matter of claims 1-9 is therefore new. involves an inventive step and is industrially applicable.

The claims 1-9 meet the requirements of articles 33(1), 33(2), 33(3) and 33(4) PCT.
